

Annual Report

2020 - 2021

NOT JUST ANOTHER YEAR

The challenges of the 2020-21 school year brought some unique learning opportunities and powerful moments of gratitude. Students were quarantined much more than we would have liked, but we only had one active case of COVID-19. Throughout it all, our students continued to learn well and show resilience, perhaps because they saw their teachers modeling it so well.

Through the Eyes of Our Students

The Hill School Through the Eyes of Our Students, an online event, was livestreamed on April 27, 2021. Highlights included stories from the first edition of the Hill School newspaper, created entirely by our eighth-grade students, as well as a parent's story of his child's struggles before he came to Hill. The event ended with a short video tour of a day in the life of The Hill School.

To watch the video, visit the News & Events page on our website.

If you were had the opportunity to visit The Hill School of Wilmington this past year, you might have seen a new face (and tail) roaming the halls. In the fall of 2020, the school added a facility dog to its staff, a Golden Retriever named DECLAN. Throughout the year, DECLAN spent her days greeting students at the door, working with them during classes and breaks, and comforting students who were struggling or feeling sad during the day. To learn more about DECLAN, you can read an interview with her handler, Heather Schild on our website.

In October, during Dyslexia Awareness Month, The Hill School participated in the Virtual Dyslexia Dash 5K organized by the GA International Dyslexia Association.

In June, Mrs. Doris Sanders retired after nine years at Hill. She touched so many lives through her teaching and will be greatly missed. We wish her the best of luck!

As the Hill School celebrated its 10th Year, we reflected on students, staff, and community who helped support us throughout the years. We featured articles in our newsletters and website. The articles can be read in our Spotlight Series on our News & Events page.

Thank You Hill School 2020-21 supporters!
