From the Director: Hoping for Hugs and High-Fives

The challenges of this school year brought some unique learning opportunities and some powerful moments of gratitude. What I missed most: hugs and high-fives; seeing the unmasked smiles of our students and staff; inviting parents and community members into the school; on-site parent and teacher workshops. “
Dyslexic kids are creative, ‘outside-the-box’ thinkers . . . They have to be, because they don’t see or solve problems the same way other kids do. It’s not a bad thing to be different. Sometimes, it’s the mark of being very, very talented.
— Rick Riordan

Hill School Alum, Where Are They Now?

As our tenth year comes to a close, we take a look at five of our incredible alum, reflect on their time at Hill, and share their current successes. Read the story HERE.

It’s not too late to share your student’s achievements. We would love to hear from you!

The Hill School of Wilmington Year in Review 2020-21

What a great year we had! Click the image to the right to watch a short video showcasing some of our most memorable moments.

To show our gratitude and support for paws4people®, the organization who gave us DECLAN, our facility dog, we are asking our Hill School families and students if they will help us in a Puppy Development Center supply drive. For more information, click HERE.
