— CELEBRATING 10 YEARS —

The Hill School of Wilmington has much to celebrate this year! When the school's doors first opened at St. James Parish ten years ago this fall, only six students were enrolled in the academic program. Since then the school has grown substantially, with current enrollment at 52 students and growing. Read the full article HERE.

What Parents Are Saying About Us

"I am beyond grateful for the opportunity to have my daughter attend HSW. She has made a smooth transition and is demonstrating less anxiety. She is determined to learn as much as she can while she is here thanks to the encouraging environment."

- New HSW parent 2020-2021

Meet DECLAN, The Hill School's New Facility Dog

If you get a chance to visit The Hill School of Wilmington this year, you may see a new face (and tail) roaming the halls. This year, the school added a facility dog to its staff, DECLAN. Read an interview with DECLAN's handler and Hill School teacher, Heather Schild HERE.
