Teacher Focus: Growth Mindset

HSW teachers are fostering a Growth Mindset in their students this year. By using activities that demonstrate how the brain, more specifically, learning, is flexible not fixed, students gain understanding of how our brains are capable of change and life-long learning. For more information on Growth Mindset, check out our Featured Article and links below.

FEATURED ARTICLE

"Growth Mindset Parenting"

Growth Mindset is the belief that we can develop our abilities, including our intelligence, which is our ability to think. But how do we help cultivate it in our children? Click the link above to read an article from the Huffington Post.

Q & A: An Interview with Hill School Student Emmy Teer

Like many students at The Hill School, Emmy Teer has talents that far exceed those in academics. For her, sailing has become more than a pastime, it has become a passion. With the support and encouragement of her parents, Emmy has turned her interest in sailing into one of her greatest competitive strengths.
