WHEN LIFE HANDS YOU LEMONS . . .

FEATURED ARTICLE - WHAT IS THE ORTON-GILLINGHAM APPROACH?

Would you like to know more about the curriculum offered at Hill? The Orton-Gillingham Approach is a direct, explicit, multisensory, structured, sequential, diagnostic, and prescriptive way to teach literacy when reading, writing, and spelling does not come easily to individuals, such as those with dyslexia. - Read more

What Parents Are Saying About Us

“Life changing environment! Do not hesitate for one minute to get a spot for your child at this place! There is nothing that compares to the expertise & love of the teachers at this school! I wish I had known years ago!”

Beth
Hill School Parent

“This is the absolutely best option for children with learning differences. My granddaughter has been there 4 years and went from a poor reader to reading on grade level. The boost to her self confidence is incredible!”

Margaret
Hill School Grandparent
